

Unlikely Friendships: An Interfaith Response to the Changing Faces of America

An evening of interreligious conversation about immigration, featuring dialogue and story telling with post-sunset Ramadan fast-breaking table, kicks off Welcoming the Stranger Together symposium and launches the Interfaith Immigration Network of Metropolitan Chicago, Student Union Commons, Lewis University, Romeoville.

This event is part of Lewis University's Center for Ministry and Spirituality's free, public, non-partisan and interdisciplinary symposium, Welcoming the Stranger Together: Interfaith Action on Immigration Reform, Sept. 1 & 2, 14 & 15, 20-23, 2010. For complete program and registration go to www.lewisu.edu/ or call Center for Ministry and Spirituality, 815-836-5786.

Co-sponsors: Diocese of Joliet Peace & Social Justice Ministry • Archdiocese of Chicago Office for Immigration Affairs and Education • St. Margaret Mary Parish, Naperville • Diocese of Joliet Office for Hispanic Ministry • and Lewis University's—
• Theology Department
• Women Studies Program
• Latino/a Studies
• International Student Services and International Student Association • University Diversity Action Team • Multicultural Student Services • Office for Ser-

An evening of interreligious conversation about immigration, featuring dialogue and story telling with post-sunset Ramadan fast-breaking table, kicks off Welcoming the Stranger Together symposium and launches the Interfaith Immigration Network of Metropolitan Chicago, Student Union Commons, Lewis University, Romeoville. This event is part of Lewis University's Center for Ministry and Spirituality's free, public, non-partisan and interdisciplinary symposium, Welcoming the Stranger Together: Interfaith Action on Immigration Reform, Sept. 1 & 2, 14 & 15, 20-23, 2010. For complete program and registration go to www.lewisu.edu/or call Center for Ministry and Spirituality, 815-836-5786.

Co-sponsors: Diocese of Joliet Peace & Social Justice Ministry • Archdiocese of Chicago Office for Immigration Affairs and Education • St. Margaret Mary Parish, Naperville • Diocese of Joliet Office for Hispanic Ministry • and Lewis University's—• Theology Department • Women Studies Program • Latino/a Studies • International Student Services and International Student Association • University Diversity Action Team • Multicultural Student Services • Office for Service Learning